SOPHOMORES WIN INTERCLASS GAME

Weird Game of Ball
Results in 1921 Victory

SCORE 9-7

Freshmen Make Eight Errors—All Costly—Craig Knocks Home Run—Good Support for Both Teams

The Sophomores won the annual Interclass game last Friday at the oval, by the score of 9-7. The Freshmen played weird ball, making eight errors, most of which were costly. They started in strong, by counting three runs in the first; Goggin was passed and stole second, Keane was safe when Hobbs fumbled his easy roller. Both men advanced on a short passed ball; Marsh made first on Parmenter's error and with the bases loaded, Wood doubled scoring three, but was out when he tried to stretch his hit to a triple. Carpenter and McDuffee both singled but were caught stealing. The Sophomores came back strong with five tallies in their half of the first. With one down, Stewart was passed and Torrey was safe when Keane missed his hard smash. Craig then cleaned up with a circuit clout to left. They scored two more in this inning on two errors and a hit batsman. The score was tied in the fourth and again in the seventh. In the eighth, the Sophomores got two; Livingston singled, Levy was passed and Gould went in to run for him, and promptly went to sleep for Wood whipped the ball down to Marsh and caught him off the base. True went to first when Wood lost the ball in his protector on the third strike, Livingston going to third. Stewart fanned and Torrey contributed his third hit, knocking in two runs. Craig tightened up in the ninth, fanning two. Craig, Torrey and Stewart featured for the winners, while McDuffee and Bishop did the best for the Freshmen.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CLUB.

AGGIE CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Morrill Hall Scene of Feast—More Than Fifty Present—F. W. Howe, '94, Speaker of Evening

The annual banquet of the Agricultural Club was held Friday evening, June 6, in the club rooms at Morrill Hall. Simpson, from Durham Point, was caterer and furnished his usual good value.

About thirty-five members of the club with invited guests and members of the faculty, making fifty in all, sat down to enjoy the feast at nine o'clock. The college quartet rendered selections during the banquet, which were much enjoyed by all.

ALUMNUS TALKS

Prof. F. W. Taylor, acting as toastmaster of the evening, cracked jokes in all directions throughout the banquet. Mr. Fredeirck W. Howe, '94, was introduced by the toastmaster as the principal speaker of the evening. Mr. Howe, an old alumnus, gave a talk on "Opportunities in the Milk Business." The speaker drew from his experience with the Walker-Gordon people to illustrate his talk. The prophecy was made by the speaker that the milk business of the future would be along the lines of factory production, requiring good management, adequate capital and a good product.

Following this interesting talk the banqueters were much interested in Rev. Vaughan Dabney's story of climbing Mt. Blour, the highest peak in Europe, while on a furlough from Y. M. C. A. work.

SENIORS SPEAK

Two Aggie seniors, O. F. Page and W. E. Shuttleworth, spoke a few words at the behest of the toastmaster, thus setting a worthy example for under classmen.

Following another selection with encore from the quartet the gathering broke up.

1919-1920 CATALOGUES.

The 1919-1920 New Hampshire College catalogues arrived last week. The catalogues contain the usual resume of the courses, pictures and a map of the campus, and general information in regard to entrance requirements, college dormitories, etc.

The catalogue numbers of the courses have all been changed from semester numbers to term numbers, and are arranged on the basis of A for the fall term, B for the winter term, and C for the spring term. The names of all students enrolled in the Students' Army Training courses, together with the names of all regular enrolled students are given in a list in the back of the catalogue which are now available to all students and prospective students.

NEW HAMPSHIRE TRACK TEAM DEFEATS MASS. AGGIES 76½-40½

Ends Successful Track Season

Undefeated in a Dual Meet

ANDREWS INDIVIDUAL STAR

Captain Nightingale Lowers College Half Mile Record—Andrews Scores 26 Points—Melville, Felker, Leath and Nute Other Winners

New Hampshire ended the most successful track season in its history by defeating Massachusetts Agricultural College, 76½ to 40½ on Alumni Field, Amherst, Mass., Saturday, June 7. The Blue and White took ten first places and tied for another. She took every point in the 880-yard run, the shot put and the discus throw. Andrews was easily the star of the meet, collecting twenty-one points, winning the shot, discus, broad jump, tying for first in the high hurdles and tying for second in the high jump.

In the 100-yard dash Felker showed his heels to Sullivan in a fine race which was close and hard to judge. Melville took third just nosing out Wright by inches.

Nightingale took things easy in the mile. Slate and Carpenter kept well up until the last lap when "Night" opened up a big lead and romped over the line in four minutes and forty seconds.

In the "440" Captain Yesair started out like a whirlwind followed closely by Melville. "Mel" did not try to pass him until they sped into the last straight way, when he passed him followed by Wright who was beaten by five yards in 52 4-5 just one-fifth of a second slower than Melville's own record.

Andrews tied with Meserve in the high hurdles who broke his college record in 17 2-5.

"Cy" Leath showed the field up in the two mile, breaking the tape with a half a lap lead. Billingham and Carpenter had a little fight all their own for second place and Carpenter, who had taken third in the mile, ran as plucky a race and succeeded in beating Billingham for second.

"NIGHT" BREAKS RECORD

The only New Hampshire record broken was in the half mile when Nightingale after winning the mile and running the two mile until he was sure we would get two places in the two-mile drops out and wins the half mile in 2 min. 1 and 1-5 seconds, lowering S. W. Wentworth's, '19, record by 1 4-5 seconds on a loose track. "Night" was followed closely by O'Leary and Baker taking second and third respectively.

Felker again showed his heels to the M. A. C. sprinter, Sullivan and Melville and Wright ran a dead heat and were tied for third.

Nute took third in the low hurdles. Meserve won with Parkhurst second.

Andrews was tied with Parkhurst for second in the high jump which was won by Smith of the N. A. C.

Andrews, Batchelder and Sawyer finished in one, two, three order in the shot put.

Andrews, Sawyer and Batchelder finished one, two three in the discus.

In the broad jump Andrews "copped" first with Nute second while in the pole vault Nute "copped" first with Brown tied with Parkhurst for second.

The team was given a splendid time while at Amherst. The hospitality shown could not be beat.

The summary:

100-yard dash: Won by Felker, N. H.; Sullivan, M. A. C., second; Melville, N. H., third. Time, 10 3-5 seconds.

C. W. McNEIL DROWNED WHEN CANOE TIPS OVER.

Clarence W. McNeil, '22, of Lebanon, N. H., was drowned in Oyster River as a result of a canoe tipping over. With him at the time of the accident were L. S. Cooper of Medford, Mass., and W. T. Crosby of Groveland, Mass. All three men were members of the Theta Chi fraternity.

As the canoe tipped over two girls who were on the bank of the river, realizing the danger, ran to the Theta Chi house for help. But aid did not arrive in time to restore life to McNeil, who was unable to swim and whose body had been in the water about fifteen minutes when it was recovered. McNeil was a member of the Freshman basketball team and the College Glee Club.

NOTICE.

This is the final issue of the "New Hampshire" for the year 1918-19. The names of those who are to be awarded degrees were not ready in time for this issue and will be printed in the first issue of the year 1919-20.

WELCOME ALUMNI.

To you who are the graduates of our Alma Mater, and are now returning to renew acquaintances and bind closer the friendships of New Hampshire we extend our welcome.

As you return to this small but historic college town and recall the institution of the past you will marvel at the changes in our campus, you will note new buildings, new walks and new people—all marks of progress, New Hampshire has been "carrying on."

It is hoped that you will appreciate the efforts of students, faculty, and friends who have worked unsparingly in recent months for the success of various projects and that in this appreciation you will find the incentive for a greater respect a greater love for old New Hampshire.

We welcome you our always faithful supporters.

COME BACK.

As the year draws to its end, we strongly urge all the undergraduates to return in the fall. Next year will be a banner year in the history of the college. The new Commons is to be in use and other plans are being made for the further expansion of the institution and its equipment which will make our college work and play more profitable than ever before. Next year will see college life back to a normal standard after this strenuous and unusual year. A part of our task will be to place all activities on a firm basis and solve our problems of student government. During this past year our track and basketball fame has spread widely and if we give "a long pull, a strong pull, a pull all together" we can boost New Hampshire right into the front rank of New England colleges.

Come back every one and be a part of a bigger, better New Hampshire.

The administrative office of the college is giving special attention to the question of installing a course in music next year. Should such a course be installed it would be necessary for those registering to pay a reasonable fee for the work taken. Those interested and especially those desiring to register for special instruction in any form of music should indicate their preference during the next week. Blank forms may be secured in the registrar's office. Such registration will in no way bind those interested but will serve as a guide in the selection. The Freshmen nine lost their last game last Saturday in a no-hit no-run game, the first such a game to be played here this year. 1922 LOSES TO SOPHS IN ANNUAL ROPE PULL

Last Wednesday afternoon, June 11, after chapel, that annual classic, the rope-pull, was held. The weather being fair and mild, a big crowd assembled to see the two teams settle this old score.

After the choice of sides was made, both teams settled down to secure toe-holds and brace. The freshmen posted themselves on the side toward Dover while the upper classmen "dug in" on the opposite bank. There was the usual argument over positions and amount of rope, and not until twenty minutes past three were both teams squared away for the tussle.

At the pistol shot the rope straightened up like a bow string and the men on it tugged with all their might. It was soon evident that the freshmen would have to "take to the water." The sophomores, who, perhaps had the advantage of weight and experience (?) pulled together and inside of six minutes had the first freshman on the opposite bank. The losers did not come over, however, without a struggle, and spent some few minutes in the water. The tide being in they did not have the pleasure of wading in the mud.

After winning the contest the sophomores "rubbed it in" by making the freshmen kiss the rope, carry it up to the gym, and return it to the "dungeon" where it will remain till next fall waiting for another pull.

The teams were: sophomores, Sawyer, (Captain), Franklin, Wooster, Johnson, Hubbard, Bearse, Mann, Cotton, Craig, Cross, Evans, Davis, French, R. F. Carpenter, Hartwell, Wiggins, Torrey, Batchelder, Stuart; freshmen, Andrews, (Capt.), and Harris coach, not pulling; team, Cassilo, Mansell, Ingham, Yeaton, Cleveland, Cox, Stanley, Dawson, Rowe, McKerley, Silver, Dickinson, Weston, Leveroni, Rosselle, Rowell, Bauer, Darville, Strong, Nelson.

He nearly left France for home shortly after Christmas when he was transferred to the 163rd Infantry, 41st Division, which was preparing to return to the states. However, on the eve of their departure he was ordered to Paris and then sent to the 3rd Army for Agricultural Educational work. Just as work was nearly completed with the 89th Division there, he was ordered away to the A. E. F. university.

W. H. Thompson, ex-'19, is at St. Nazaire, France, in Air Service Camp No. 1. He says that it is rumored that his Base Section will close July 20th, and if he doesn't decide to take a French wife and settle down in Paris he may be home about August 1.

MUCH INTEREST IN GIRLS' TENNIS MATCH.

Much interest has been displayed in the girls' tennis tournament which has taken place this last week under the direction of Miss Helen Bartlett.

In the doubles Leona Colton, '21, and Miriam Furber, '20, were defeated by Hortense Cavis, '21, and Annie McWeeney, '21, who also defeated Winnifred Brown, '20, and Lucille Burleigh, '20, in the final match which took place at the Lambda Chi Alpha court on Wednesday night.

In the singles Leona Colton defeated Lucille Burleigh and Helen Chase, '22, and Annie McWeeney defeated Muriel Chamberlain, '19, and Miriam Furber so that the final match in singles is between Leona Colton and Annie McWeeney.

This is the first time that girls have had a tennis tournament here and its success argues well for future undertakings of this kind.

The girls wish to express their appreciation to the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity for the use of their court for the final match.

Dr. Howes was the referee for the finals and Miss Bartlett for the semi-finals.

PROF. AND MRS. MARCEAU ENTERTAIN CERCLE FRANCAIS

Professor and Mrs. J. H. Marceau entertained the members of the Cercle Français at their home last Thursday evening.

A short business meeting was held at which it was decided to issue bids at the third meeting of the cercle after the beginning of college in the fall. A committee was appointed to make rules concerning absences.

A general discussion of current topics in French followed, after which Miss Beatrice Brooks entertained with a piano selection and Professor Marceau played a song which he had composed.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and candy were served.

By no means the least interesting part of the evening was the various articles which Professor and Mrs. Marceau have collected in their travels.

"PENKA HOWIE" LEADS ALL IN PRODUCING MILK.

The college dairy herd has many good cows, but one in particular an Ayrshire, "Penka Howie," is doing big things in the milk producing line. During the month of May "Penka Howie" gave 1,961.3 lbs. of milk with a test of 38 per cent. figuring out 104.5 lbs. of butterfat.

Of course the herdsman watches her particularly and is continually feeding her all she can eat of balanced rations. He sees that she is milked promptly at a certain time, three times a day. Aggie students are advised to look this cow up next fall when they return to college and see how the animal is coming across with the milk.

Y. P. S. MEETING.

The last meeting of the New Hampshire Y. P. S. for the college year was held Sunday at 7.00 o'clock in the church vestry. After the singing and refreshments A. H. Moody, '19, led the discussion on the subject of plans for next year's work including the question of how to gain more members. The executive committee was empowered to carry out the plans. For one thing, personal invitations to join the society are to be sent to the freshmen the first thing in the fall. The meeting developed a great deal of enthusiasm for better work.

SENIORS

FAREWELL

There's a sadness and a gladness about Commencement time. 'Tis hard to part from old friends and familiar places without a feeling of regret. Yet there is the mystic lure of the untried future. With jocund step goes forth the senior to seek his fortune. Durham church is loth to see you go but joins with others in bidding you Godspeed, rejoicing that in you the hard pressed forces of truth and right will find a valiant ally.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CLUB HAS ANNUAL DANCE.

The "N. H." Club held its annual dance Tuesday night, June 3, in the Gym. In spite of the exceedingly hot weather there was a large crowd present and all managed to "keep cool" enough to have an enjoyable time.

The Gym was very prettily decorated with palms and college banners. There were several spotlight dances. Refreshments of ice cream and fancy crackers were served.

The chaperones were, Professor and Mrs. James Morceau, Professor and Mrs. Clarence R. Cleveland and Professor and Mrs. Gourley.

DOROTHY HANSON, '19, WRITES PRIZE POEM.

The Book and Scroll held its annual election Sunday night. The following officers were elected for next year: Beatrice Brooks, '20, president; Florence Kelley, '20, vice president; Frances Kling, '20, secretary; Helen Barton, '20, treasurer, and Lucile Burleigh, '20, librarian.

Plans for next year were discussed and the poems submitted to the poem contest were read. The prize poem was "Trailing Arbutus" by Dorothy Hanson, '19. Professor William Lyons Phelps of Yale judged the poems.

DAIRY JUDGING CLASS TAKES INSTRUCTION TRIP.

The class in Dairy Judging went on an instruction trip through Massachusetts last Wednesday, June 14, by automobile, Thompson's, Pitts' and Professor Fuller's cars accommodating the class. Arriving at Worcester that night, they obtained rooms there and proceeded to Springfield next morning, where they stayed all day and attended a consignment sale of cattle.

They stayed there in Springfield over night and next day went to the Mixer farm in Hardwick, where they saw some splendid examples of the Ayshire breed. In the afternoon, they went to the Moore Hill farm where they were shown some of the finest Guernsey cattle in the state.

Saturday, they saw some more fine cattle at the Field farm in Brockton, where some very fine Holsteins are bred. The last farm on the trip was the Hood farm at Lowell. Here, some of the finest Jerseys in the country are kept, including the world's champion Jersey cow, Sophie 19, of Hood Farm and many others of merit. They also saw some fine Berkshire hogs, which, though not dairy cattle, were of considerable interest to all.

They reached Durham Saturday night, somewhat tired for their long trip. It was, however, a very profitable trip and one which all the class will remember with pleasure.

LANDSCAPE GARDENERS TAKE TRIP TO BOSTON.

Friday, June 8, the class in Landscape Gardening under Professor Hepler made a visit to the Arnold Arboretum in Forest Hills, outside of Boston. By making an early start in the morning, in Professor Richardson's car, they were able to arrive in Boston a little before ten o'clock.

They spent the morning studying the nomenclature, and appearance of the numerous varieties of ornamental shrubs, trees, and other plants. This included a great many kinds of honeysuckle, lilacs, mock orange, rhododendrons, and practically all materials used in landscape gardening with the exception of perennial and annual herbaceous flowers. They ate their dinner on the grounds and stayed there until about three o'clock, when they started for home. The trip was the best opportunity they could possibly get which would give any idea of the variety of shrubs and trees.

Those making the trip were Dustin, Smith, Abbott, Miss Arey and Professor Hepler. Nightingale accompanied them on his way to Amherst.

PRES. HETZEL TALKS AT CONVOCATION

Expects Large Enrollment Next Year
—"College Education Pays Large Dividend"

President Hetzel was the speaker at the last Convocation of the year on last Wednesday.

In his talk he expressed his appreciation of the attitude of the students for he said that the past year had been unusually hard for both students and faculty as it was broken up by the military work which threatened to make the year unproductive.

He stated an expectation that next year will be the best year in the history of the institution as there will be a probable enrollment of over 700.

COURSES IMPROVED

The Engineering course has been improved and enlarged so that men not interested in highly specialized engineering work may still elect engineering subjects. The Home Economics and Arts and Science courses have also been increased.

The college equipment has been materially improved and it is expected that the Commons will be ready for occupancy in the fall.

He said: "If there ever was a time when education will count it will be in the future. Surveys have been made showing that money invested in a college education pays an exceedingly large dividend."

In closing he said: "I hope that the summer vacation will be profitable to all, a time of readjusting relative values, of strengthening resolutions and improving physical well being. Come back ready to start college with a determination to get the most out of it with good old New Hampshire spirit, ready to become expressive with reconstructive work."
